

SUKKAH BUILDING CONTEST!

Torah University is sponsoring a Sukkah building contest which will take place during Sukkot. This is your opportunity to show off your skills of building and decorating.

To enter the contest please complete the form below and return it to the Kol Ami office. During the week of Sukkot, you will be visited by our three judges who will view and grade your Sukkah. Great prizes will be given to all contestants.

Our judges this year will be Hazzan Jodi Sered-Lever, Dr. Dave Cross and Dr. Todd Wiener, our Master Builder. All entrants must conform to the contest rules as stated below.

CONTEST RULES

1. Sukkah must be freestanding
2. Sukkah must measure at least 8 x 8 x 8
3. Any number of people may participate on each construction
4. No pre-constructed purchased kits will be judged
5. Judging criteria will be:
 - a. Originality
 - b. Economic and efficient use of materials
 - c. Engineering
 - d. Quality of construction
 - e. Degree of adherence to religious principles
6. There should be no obvious material or construction hazards
7. This contest is open to all Kol Ami members and is void in jurisdictions where prohibited by law
8. No professional Sukkah contractors may be used

CONTEST FORM (Return to Kol Ami office)

NAME _____

ADDRESS _____

TELEPHONE _____

EMAIL _____

