NEFESH MOUNTAIN IN CONCERT

CONCERT TO BENEFIT THE KIDS

FEBRUARY 23, 2019

8 P.M.

CONGREGATION KOL AMI

This family friendly community-wide concert features the Bluegrass band Nefesh Mountain (<http://www.nefeshmountain.com>). Nefesh Mountain is the place where Bluegrass and Old-Time music meet with Jewish heritage and tradition. Partners Eric Lindberg and Doni Zasloff want nothing more than to have the lens of their entire identities filtered through their brand of crisp, refined, and timeless bluegrass in myriad ways — tangible or intangible. Throughout their songs you can hear the foundational similarities between bluegrass and Jewish traditions, notably the lure of “home,” the love of nature and the comforts of a like-minded community.

“The Sound of Appalachia and the Soul of Judaism” -Tablet Magazine

What seems initially to be a curious novelty combining bluegrass and traditional Jewish music turns out to be an idea that makes absolute sense...The union is a perfect fit... It took matchmakers Nefesh Mountain to get these two together, and we're thankful they did.” -No Depression

“Doni Zasloff and Eric Lindberg’s rustic Jewish-American hybrid of spiritual music makes swords into plowshares.”
